

ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE

Moving the Needle:

Building My Legacy

WHO: Women working in New Jersey higher education institutions who are looking to enhance their careers.

WHAT: A professional development conference designed to empower participants to build, or build upon, the skills and connections they need to go to the next level of their career.

Dr. Lynn Gangone, VP for Leadership programs at the American Council on Education, will present the keynote address.

A panel of women in different roles at varying levels within higher education institutions will discuss “Developing the skills to build your legacy.”

WHEN: Friday, March 24, 2017, 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

WHERE: Brookdale Community College
Warner Student Life Center, Navesink rooms
765 Newman Springs Rd., Lincroft, NJ 07738
Parking lot #6 or #7

Brookdale is conveniently located five minutes from exit 109 on the Garden State Parkway. For directions and a campus map visit: www.brookdalecc.edu/about/maps-and-directions

COST: Conference fee includes breakfast and lunch

Advance registration (online or by mail):

$65 per person, $35 for students.

At door: $80

Registration deadline is Monday, March 20, 2017 (registrations sent by mail should be postmarked by March 17, 2017)

For a full agenda or more information visit: <http://njacenet.org>

Questions? Please fill out our inquiry form here: <http://njacenet.org/contact>